

Dr. Anupam Saraph, Ph.D.

Dr Saraph is the CIO of Pune City- his position, the first of its kind in India is the result of a PPP arrangement between the SEAP and various Government Agencies. His position has been created to evolve a platform for shared services across the city. Dr Saraph has spent over 25 years building enduring value and supporting both businesses and governments develop and accomplish challenging visions.

Dr. Saraph has been an Advisor to Top Leadership in business and government across Asia, Europe and the Americas and has served as an Independent Director on the boards of public and private corporations. He is a recognized for his innovations, leadership and contributions in Governance, Public Information Systems, Computer Simulation, Modeling, and System Design and Education.