

Synopsis of Dr. Sudershan K. Arora

Dr. Sudershan. K. Arora is presently associated with Ranbaxy Laboratories Ltd. as President – Clinical & Drug Development. Dr. Arora has expertise of more than 30 years in the field of pharmaceutical industry. Most recently he held the position of President – Research & Development, Lupin Limited Pune.

Dr. Arora has completed his PhD in Synthetic Organic Chemistry from Kurukshetra University and D.Sc from Bundelkhand University. In a career spanning over three decades, Dr. Arora has worked with leading Indian and global pharmaceutical companies like Greenwich Pharmaceuticals Inc. USA, Medicarb Inc. USA, Biogen Inc., USA, Ranbaxy Laboratories Limited, Lupin Limited and Sandoz, Austria.

He has a wide experience in pre-clinical and clinical development of products in various therapeutic areas like Tuberculosis, Psoriasis, Migraine, Metabolic Disorder, BPH, Asthma & Rheumatoid Arthritis, among others. He also has experience in leading research programs for design, synthesis and pre-clinical development of NCEs / natural products. Dr. Arora has more than 40 patents to his credit and the numerous publications he has in reputed scientific journals bear testimony to his technical achievements. He has been an active and prominent speaker at various domestic and international scientific forums and is also on the governing bodies of a number of academic institutions in India.
