

Mr. Mukesh Malhotra

President, MCCIA

Managing Director

Weikfield Group Of Companies

Mr. Mukesh Malhotra, eldest son of Shri Satpal Malhotra was born in Pune on 12th of June, 1952.

He completed his schooling at The Bishop's School, Pune passing out as "Senior Scholar" of the year. He then went on to complete his Bachelor of Engineering in Mechanical Engineering at the College of Engineering, Pune, once again graduating in the top ten in the Pune University, in 1973.

He received his foundation in the family business during the late schooling and through his college years by attending the Factory on a part time basis during college and full time during vacations. He formally joined the family business of Weikfield Products in August, 1973.

Mukesh decided to focus his energies on International business and started the Exports Division of Weikfield products Co. (I) Pvt. Ltd. in 1975. Starting with a modest few lacs in the Middle East, the exports of the Weikfield Group have grown to several million Dollars and reaches customers in over 26 countries, across 5 continents. In 1995, Weikfield set up a joint venture manufacturing unit under his direction in Sharjah, U.A.E to serve the entire Middle East / Gulf market which is also now a multi-crore operation.

The establishment of the export business has taken Mukesh to over 60 countries and 150 cities in every corner of the Globe, giving him a broad appreciation and understanding of many aspects of International trade in different parts of the world. The Company's products have received International Quality Awards from Europe and America in 1980 and 1994, and Mukesh is a member of the Trade Leaders Club in Europe, since 1981. Weikfield has also received the coveted "International Food Safety (IFS)" Certification which is the ultimate, being much more stringent than HACCP / ISO.

With his desire to share his knowledge of the intricacies of International Trading, Mukesh was a member of the Founding team that set-up the "Certificate Course in International Trade" in the Mahratta Chamber of Commerce & Industries (MCCIA), and he has been a Visiting Faculty at Symbiosis Institute of Foreign Trade, Lamcon Institute of Management, Indira Institute of Management, etc.

He was appointed Managing Director of Weikfield Products Co. (I) Pvt. Ltd. in 1994 and continues to hold that position.

He is actively involved in the activities of MCCIA with a track record of over ten years, serving in various activities such as Chairman - Foreign Trade Sub-Committee, Treasurer, Honorary Secretary & President 2008 – 2010, a post he currently holds.

He is also a member of the Indo-American Chamber of Commerce, The British Business Group and various other International Bodies.

Mukesh has also been a keen Rotarian and has served as President of the Rotary Club of Pune Riverside for the Rotary Centennial Year 2004-2005.

Mukesh is also intimately connected with the Vipassana movement and has been an avid Vipassana Meditator since 1989. Other than meditation, his hobbies and interests include music, ranging from Indian Classical to Western Pop, travel, International Cuisine, and he is a voracious reader.
